WRITE-IN CANDIDATE

Your voice matters! Your vote matters! Election Day is November 4th.

- Pennsylvania's Supreme Court hangs in the balance – this court has ruled to protect your voting rights, your reproductive rights, and your ability to vote by mail. You can help retain the Justices on the Court who have ruled to protect Pennsylvanians. Vote "yes" to retain Justices Christine Donohue, Kevin Dougherty and David Wecht.
- Education and Taxes will be affected – The OJR School Board Directors on the ballot make child-centered decisions about the education your children or your neighbor's children receive. And they have kept tax increases below act 1 index and the 10-year average. You can re-elect Sara Evans, April Saboe, Rita Pederson, and David Harmanos, who have delivered innovations in curriculum and programs, engaged with the community in an open and transparent manner, and managed the finances of the district while improving facilities and controlling tax increases.
- County Government services are on the ballot – The County Row offices up for election may touch every aspect of your life – from County Treasurer to Coroner, these offices provide services to you and your family that make your day-to-day life better. Elect/Re-elect Caroline Bradley for Clerk of Courts, Nick Cherubino for Controller, Sophia Garcia-Jackson for Coroner, Alex Christy for Prothonotary, and Patricia Maisano for Treasurer.
- County Courts are up for grabs – The Court of Common Pleas hears both civil and criminal cases and is the courtroom where all local cases start. We need to ensure that the judges on this court represent our values and are committed to fair application of the law. Elect Mackenzie Smith and Clay Cauley to the Court of Common Pleas!
- In some townships, there are important Township Supervisor races – these folks control your local services and taxes and impact your daily life! Look for these races on your ballot!

Vote on November 4th – or before by mail – to elect Democrats across the board – and protect our Democracy and our way of life!
